Framework Call Off Options

Call-Off Method	Detail
Direct Award	Selecting a supplier, without reopening competition, based on the terms of the Framework Agreement utilizing the costs and rates provided within the framework for the completion of specific items of work.
Direct Award with Negotiation	Selecting a supplier, without reopening competition, based on the terms of the Framework Agreement utilizing fixed cost elements; including overhead, profit, prelims. Through early engagement the Supplier and Member will then agree the variable costs for the project specific works / services.
Single Stage Further Competition	Selecting a supplier via further competition in accordance with the terms of the Framework Agreement amongst the suppliers appointed to the framework for the relevant Lot and region, through a combined quality and cost evaluation based on the contract specific requirements.
Two Stage Further Competition	Selecting a supplier via further competition based on the terms of the Framework Agreement and amongst the suppliers appointed to the framework for the relevant Lot and region, through a two-stage approach. A supplier will be identified at the 1st stage based on a quality evaluation and fixed cost elements; which may include overhead, profit, prelims. Through early engagement the Member and Supplier will then agree the variable costs for the project specific works/ services through the second stage

Working with Fusion21

- Fusion21 has no annual fees or joining fee and there is no commitment or obligation to use our services.
- Fusion21 charges its suppliers a management fee, as a percentage of the contract value for each call off. Fees are set based on the value of the project and level of service you require. We charge the fee on the entire contract value (all years) to the supplier and collect it from them directly.
- Fees range from a maximum of 4% to 1%
- Docu sign

Social Value

Clare Connolly - Social Value Manager

Social Value

What do we mean by Social Value?

Positive change that we create in the local communities in which we operate

Why deliver Social Value?
